| First Voice  | On this first Sunday in Advent, we light this candle and name it Hope. (light first blue candle)   |
| Second Voice | When we light it, we feel excited. We are looking forward to something special. What can it be? When is it going to happen? When we light this candle, we feel hopeful as we wait in this season. |
| First Voice  | This candle reminds us that the prophet Isaiah was longing for God's presence too.  |
| Second Voice | It reminds us that the people in the early church were longing for God's presence too.  |
| First Voice  | This candle is a symbol for our own longing for God to be with us. We wait in hope for God to surprise us and break into our lives.   |

The Proclamation of the Word

The First Reading: read by John Spender

A reading from the book of Jeremiah

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Jeremiah 33:14-16

Psalm 25

To you, O Lord, *
I lift up my soul;

my God, I put my trust in you; * let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Let none who look to you be put to shame; *
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.

Show me your ways, O Lord, * and teach me your paths.

Lead me in your truth and teach me, * for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.

Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love, * for they are from everlasting.

Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; * remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.

Gracious and upright are you, O Lord; * therefore you teach sinners in your way.

You guide the humble in doing right * and teach your way to the lowly.

The Second Reading: read by Hazel Breakey
A reading from the first Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

1 Thessalonians 3:9-13

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke

All

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

‘There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see “the Son of Man coming in a cloud” with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.’

Then he told them a parable: ‘Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

‘Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.’

*He will come like last leaf's fall.
One night when the November wind has flayed the trees to bone, and earth

the soft shroud's folding.*

*He will come like frost.
One morning when the shrinking earth arrested in the net of alien, sword-set beauty.*

*He will come like dark.
One evening when the bursting red the star-snowed fields of sky.

He will come, will come,
will come like crying in the night,

as the earth writhes to toss him free.
He will come like child.*

Preparation of the Gifts

Representatives of the people present the gifts of bread and wine for the Eucharist. Your thoughtful and generous gifts enable our worship and ministry to our world. Please place your offerings in the collection plate at the back of the church. We thank you very much.

Doxology

All                    Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Prayer Over The Gifts

Celebrant            God of love and power,
All                    your word stirs within us the expectation of the coming of your Son. Accept all we offer you this day, and sustain us with your promise of eternal life. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant            This is the table of the Lord Jesus Christ.
                              It is to be made ready for those who love him and who want to love him more.
                              So come,

All                    we who have much faith and we who have little, we who have been here often and we who have not been for a long time, we who have tried to follow and we who have failed.

Celebrant            Come. This is our Lord's invitation.

All                    It is his will that those who seek him should meet him here.

All                    Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
                              heaven and earth are full of your glory.
                              Hosanna in the highest.
                              Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
                              Hosanna in the highest,
                              Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant            Now let us hear the story of how this sacrament began:
                              On the night on which Jesus was betrayed,
                              he sat at supper with his disciples.
                              While they were eating, he took a piece of bread, said a blessing, broke it and gave it to them with the words,
                              "This is my body. It is broken for love of you.
                              Do this to remember me".

Celebrant            Later he took a cup of wine, saying:
                              "This cup is God's new covenant, sealed with my love and my life blood.
                              Drink from it, all of you, to remember me."

All                        So now, following Jesus' example and command, we take this bread and this wine, the ordinary things of the world which Christ will make special.
                              And as he said a prayer before sharing,
                              let us do so too.

Celebrant            And now, lest we believe that our praise alone fulfills your purpose, we fall silent and remember him who came because words weren't enough.

(Silent reflection)

Celebrant            Setting our wisdom, our will, and our words aside,
All                        emptying our hearts, and bringing nothing in our hands, we yearn for the healing, the holding, the accepting, the forgiving, which Christ alone can offer.

(Silent reflection)

Celebrant            Merciful God, send now, in your abounding kindness and generosity, your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus.

All                        May that same Spirit rest on us, converting us from the patterns of this passing world, until we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share. Amen.

(Silent Reflection)

The Lord's Prayer

Cantor

As our Sa-viour Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Fa-ther in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your Name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven.
 Give us to-day our dai-ly bread.
 For-give us our sins as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us.
 Save us from the time of tri-al, and de-liv-er us from e-vil.
 For the king-dom, the power, and the glo-ry are yours, now and for ev-er. A-men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ

All We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in G minor, 4/4 time. It consists of two systems. The first system contains two measures, each with a repeat sign. The second system contains two measures, also with repeat signs. The lyrics 'ho - ly is the name I know.' are written below the first system. The second system contains a piano accompaniment with a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a melodic line with a long slur over the first two measures, and the bass staff has a simple harmonic accompaniment.

- 2 When the King of all creation had a cradle on the earth, holy was the human body,
 holy was the human birth.
 God above, Man below,
 holy is the name I know.
- 3 Who can tell what other cradle,
 high above the milky way, still may rock the King of heaven on another Christmas day?
 God above, Man below,
 holy is the name I know.

Blessing

Three Bells

BB 59 The Advent of our King*59 FRANCONIA. S.M.Harmonischer Liederschatz, 1738. Descant by Dr. ALAN GRAY.

The Advent of our King
Our prayers must now employ,
And we must hymns of welcome sing
In strains of holy joy.

The Everlasting Son
Incarnate deigns to be Himself a servant's form puts on,
To set his servants free.

Daughter of Sion, rise
To meet thy lowly King;
Nor let thy faithless heart despise
The peace he comes to bring.

Dismissal

Celebrant

The Lord be with you.

All

And also with you.

Celebrant

Go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

Our worship is now over, and our service begins.

All

Thanks be to God.

Please maintain silence in the Sanctuary so that those who wish may remain in prayer.
